Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Department, 27th August 1868.

No. 214. Read the following letter from the Secretary to the Committee for the Examination of Assistants, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Madras, 17th August 1868, No. 311.

I have the honor, by direction of the Committee, to report, for the information of His Excellency the Right Honorable the Governor in Council, the result of the Half-yearly Examination of Assistants, which was held upon 29th and 30th June.

2. Thirteen gentlemen presented themselves for examination according to the Higher Standard, and of these seven can now be reported to have finally passed, viz. :—

Mr. H. F. Clogstoun, Mr. C. W. W. Martin, who were examined in those subjects only in which they had failed at previous examinations.

Mr. G. D. Irvine, Mr. C. J. Crosthwaite,
„ A. Tagg, „ E. N. Overbury,
„ W. J. H. LeFanu, who were examined in all subjects, and who have passed in the order in which their names are given.

3. A separate report on the examinations of Mr. J. Cameron, Mr. J. Kelsall, and Mr. J. B. Jones, will be submitted at an early date.

4. With regard to Mr. J. B. Spedding, who scarcely attempted anything in Telugu, (his first language,) the Divisional Committee report that “he says all his work is done in Oorayah, and that he has no practice in Telugu.” Government are accordingly respectfully requested to determine what shall be considered as his first language at next examination, unless they are of opinion that, having passed in both languages according to the Higher Standard in January 1867 when in North Arcot, (though he also then failed in Revenue and Law,) he is exempted from any further examination in languages under Proceedings of Government, 11th June 1868, No. 709, Public Department.

5. Mr. W. F. Grahame has passed in Revenue and Law and the first language, he has, therefore, only to pass the second language, in which at this examination he did not attempt anything.

6. Mr. W. P. Austin has passed in Revenue Law and second language, but was not prepared to come up in Vernacular subjects in Malayalum. He has accordingly still to pass in his first language.

7. Fifteen gentlemen appeared for examination according to the Lower Standard, and of these thirteen have passed.

1. Mr. W. H. Glenney, 4. Mr. E. Turner,
2. „ J. Wallace, 5. „ A. J. B. Atkinson,
3. „ J. D. B. Gribble, who were examined only in those subjects in which they had respectively failed on previous occasions.

Mr. T. J. Maltby, Mr. F. E. Gibson,
„ C. D. Maclean, „ J. A. Boyle,
„ T. Weir, „ E. C. Johnson,
„ C. L. B. Cumming, „ C. A. Bird, who were examined in all branches, and have passed in order of merit as above.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Department, 27th August 1868.

8. The Committee consider it is most creditable to those Junior Civilians of 1867 who came up for the examination that they should have passed at their first attempt, and within seven months after being posted to districts.

9. In conclusion, I am directed to request that Government will be pleased to sanction, from the 1st ultimo, the increased allowance of Rupees 175 per mensem to the seven gentlemen named in paragraph 2, who have passed by the 2nd Standard.

No. 215. ORDER THEREON, 27th August 1868, No. 1052.

The Government have received with great satisfaction the report now submitted on the result of the examination of the Junior Civil Servants referred to in paragraph 8, reflecting, as it does, much credit on the previous training and on the assiduity of these gentlemen.

2. The Government direct that the additional allowances of Rupees 175 per mensem be passed from the 1st July 1868 to the undermentioned gentlemen:—

Mr. H. F. Clogstoun,	Mr. W. J. H. LeFanu,
„ C. W. W. Martin,	„ C. J. Crosthwaite,
„ G. D. Irvine,	„ E. N. Overbury.
„ A. Tagg,

In the case of Mr. Spedding, the Government are of opinion that as that gentleman has already passed in the languages by the Higher Standard he should not be required again to present himself for examination in these subjects.
