Municipal Commissioners Office
Potomac and 19th August 1868.
No 182.

To Mr. H. A. Russell Esquire
President
Potomac and Municipal Commissioners
The Chief Secretary to Government
Fort St. George.

Sir, I have the honor to submit for the sanction of Government two additional bye-laws proposed by the Municipal Commissioners of Potomac and.

2. It would appear that no similar bye-laws have as yet been sanctioned in any English Municipality.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant

H. A. Russell
President.

Continuation of Bye-Laws for the Porto Rico and Municipalities under Section 14.3 of Act 1 of 1901

No previous sanction 24. The owner or occupier of any house within the limits of Porto Rico shall, when called upon by the Sanitary Commission, provide a sufficient number of a convenient place upon the land attached to such house, for the use of the springs and persons employed in the
such house, and shall keep the same in a high and decent state.

No previous sanction. 25. Every owner of a house in any barrio having a privy on his premises shall be to register the same and to keep such privy upon a plan to be approved by the Municipal Commissioners.

Breaches of Bye-Laws

11th September 1868.

No. 113. Read the following letter from the President of the Municipal Commission, Ootacamund, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Ootacamund, 19th August 1868, No. 182.

I have the honor to submit for the sanction of Government, two additional bye-laws proposed by the Municipal Commission of Ootacamund.

2. It would appear that no similar bye-laws have as yet been sanctioned in any Mofussil Municipality.

Continuation of Bye-laws for the Ootacamund Municipality, framed under Section 143 of Act X of 1865.

24. The owner or occupier of every house within the municipal limits of Ootacamund shall, when called upon by the Commissioners, provide a good and sufficient latrine in a convenient place upon the land attached to such house, for the use of the servants and persons employed in or about such house, and shall keep the same in a proper and decent state.

25. Every occupant of a house in any bazaar having a privy on his premises shall be required to register the same, and to keep such privy upon a plan to be approved by the Municipal Commissioners.

Breaches of Bye-laws 24 and 25 shall be punishable as provided in Section 143 of Act X of 1865.

MUNICIPAL COMMISSIONERS' OFFICE,
OOTACAMUND, 19th August 1868.

(Signed) N. A. ROUPELL,
President.

No. 114. ORDER THEREON, 11th September 1868, No. 1135.

The Government sanction Bye-law No. 24, proposed for the Ootacamund Municipality, but suggest that it be amended as follows:—

“The owner or occupier of every building within the municipal limits of Ootacamund shall, when called upon by the Commissioners, provide a good and sufficient latrine, in a convenient place, upon the land attached to such building, for the use of the servants and persons employed in or about such building, and shall keep the same in a clean and decent state; and, in default, such owner or occupier shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty Rupees, and to a further penalty, not exceeding ten Rupees, for every day such offence shall continue.”

2. The necessity for bye-law No. 25 is not apparent. Sections 95 and 98 of Act X of 1865 empower the Municipal Commissioners to make any privy efficient “in such manner” as they may require, and Section 98 to inspect privies, after six hours notice to the occupier of any premises.

be my little one this matter to commit
in January.

No doubt, Mr. Russell, an "Magistrate of the District"
should be the President of the Union Court. If an excellent was done,
Mr. Breckinridge has been President, it should be done. His ability for I should suppose it is very likely that a young man of Mr. Russell's standing will carry weight with the other Court.
