No. 86. Read the following letter from the Secretary to the Government of India, to the Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George ; dated Fort William, 28th February 1868, No. 16-1038.

Home Department,
Public.

I am directed to request His Excellency the Governor's attention to the subject of the distribution of the Administration and other General Reports of Local Governments and Administrations, as well as of miscellaneous papers of interest, either to the public generally, or to scientific men.

2. I am to request that, in respect to Administration and General Reports, the enclosed Distribution List, marked A, may be observed as far as it concerns places or Authorities beyond His Excellency the Governor's jurisdiction. Within those limits the distribution will be left to His Excellency the Governor's discretion.

3. Selections from Proceedings, and other papers of general interest, might be circulated according to the same list.

4. Papers of scientific interest might be communicated to learned or scientific bodies both in India and Europe, e. g., the Asiatic Societies or Indian Museums in India ; the Royal Society ; the Geographical Society ; the Geological Society ; and many others in London ; and the Universities of Oxford, Cambridge, Edinburgh, Dublin, and London. The Bibliotheque Imperial at Paris, and the cognate Institution at Turin, Dresden, Berlin, Vienna, Copenhagen, Stockholm, and St. Petersburg.

5. I am also to suggest whether measures might not be devised for the sale of such papers to persons interested through the agency of the Curators of Books, or other analogous Officers, both in His Excellency the Governor's and in other jurisdictions.
