THE HONORABLE R. S. ELLIS, C. B.,
Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George,

To

E. W. RAVENSCROFT, Esq.,
Acting Chief Secretary to the Government of Bombay.

SIR,

Adverting to the inquiry contained in your letter of the 25th ultimo, No. 373, as to whether Medical Officers in the Madras Presidency have to pass an examination in any of the Native languages before they can be employed in the Civil Department, I am directed to forward the accompanying copy of a letter on the subject from the Inspector General, Indian Medical Department.

I have the honor to be,

FORT SAINT GEORGE,
16th March 1868.

Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Chief Secretary.

From the Inspector General, Indian Medical Department, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Fort Saint George, 11th March 1868, No. 102.

In returning the letter of the Government of Bombay, referred with the Under Secretary's docket of the 4th instant, I have the honor to state, for the information of Government, that I am not aware of any order by which Medical Officers in this Presidency have to pass an examination in one of the Native languages before they can be employed in the Civil Department.

2. By G. O. G. G., No. 734, of 9th September 1864, re-published in G. O. G., No. 383, of the same year, it is necessary that a Medical Officer should pass in one

To, The Honorable R. S. Ellis, Esq.
Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras.

Sir,

I shall be obliged, if, with the permission of His Lordship the Governor in Council, you will be good enough to inform me if Medical Officers in the Madras Presidency have to pass any, and if so, what examinations in the native languages, before they can be employed in the civil branch of the Medical Department.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

Your Most Obedient Servant,
