The Native community of Mayaveram and Sheally having recently contributed a sum of Rupees 20,000 towards the support of the Civil Dispensary at Tranquebar, an institution too remote to admit of their participating in its benefits, a promise was held out to them by the Acting Head As- sistant Collector, that the aid of Govern- ment would be sought for the establish- ment of a minor Dispensary at each of the two places. In order that this scheme might be carried out, sanction was granted for the appointment of a 3rd Class Hospi- tal Assistant for Mayaveram, and a Dresser for Sheally.
