Bombay Pleader's
Office Bombay
23rd June 1889

From

A. Wedderburn Esq.

Solicitor of Bombay

To

The Honorable R. S. Ellis C. M.

Chief Secretary to Government

Fort Saint George

Sir,

In para 5 of the notification of the Commissioner for the Unreserved Civil Service examinations dated 1st June published in page 1322 of the Fort Saint George Gazette dated 2nd June it is stated that "Candidates for the "recruitment of three for the Office of Pleader "in District Munsiff's Courts who "have not been employed continuously "in the public service since the 1st January "1889 in grades other than that of the "Village Surmukh or Kumbhar, peon &c., "who require a knowledge of reading "and writing, will not be admitted "to the Special Test Examination, "unless they have passed the General
"Test at some previous examination, "or have been exempted therefrom by "a Special order of Government." He is brings for the favorable consideration of Government, the case of Mr. Ragavish a Vernacular Accountant in this Office, who has offered himself as a candidate for the Special Examinations, at the examination to be held in August next. His individual services in an appointment of Clerk date prior to January 1859 as will be seen from the enclosed list of his services. In July 1860 when he held the post of Poyasur, & Clerk, in the Cimabore Taluq, he lost that appointment owing to a reduction of establishment. He was then entertained as an As formastah in the same Taluq, from which post he was promoted to the As formastahship of Donacabroah.

~~He was appointed to the~~ amalgamation of Taluqs under Mr. Selig's scheme, but was immediately provided with an attender. ship, in the Kozgar, as there was at that time no vacancy. Subsequently he was promoted to the office of General Accountant, in which he still continues. It will be thus seen that the break in Nagaviah's service amounting to no more than and barely four days from 1st July to 24th August 1881 was caused by no fault of his own, but was consequent on the reduction of his establishment. His subsequent employment as an attendant was due to the fact that senior servants who lost their appointments by the reduction of establishment had to be provided for, before he could be promoted to the post of a clerk.

It is reported to be hard working and efficient servant. Under these circumstances, I request that the Government will be pleased to exempt Nagaviah from the General Land Revenue, in view to the Commissioner's admitting Nagaviah's application for

for the Special List.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Department, 4th July 1868.

No. 32. Read the following letter from the Collector of Coimbatore, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Coimbatore, 23rd June 1868, No. 58.

In paragraph 5 of the Notification of the Commissioner for the Uncovenanted Civil Service Examinations, dated 1st ultimo, published in page 1322 of the Fort Saint George Gazette, dated 2nd instant, it is stated that "candidates (with the exception of those for the office of Pleader in District Moonsiffs' Courts) who have not been employed continuously in the Public Service since the 1st January 1859 in grades other than that of the Village Curnum or Monegar, Peon, &c., which require a knowledge of reading and writing, will not be admitted to the Special Test Examination, unless they have passed the General Test at some previous examination, or have been exempted therefrom by a special order of Government." I beg to bring for the favorable consideration of Government the case of one Ragaviah, a Vernacular Accountant in this Office, who has offered himself as a candidate for the Special Test noted, at the examination to be held in August next. This individual's services in an appointment of clerk date prior to 1st January 1859, as will be seen from the enclosed list of his services. In July 1860, when he held the post of Royasem, i. e., clerk, in the Coimbatore Taluq, he lost that appointment, owing to a reduction of establishment. He was then entertained as an Acting Goomastah in the same Taluq, from which post he was promoted to the Head Goomastahship of Denaickencottah Taluq. This post he lost during the amalgamation of Taluqs under Mr. Pelly's scheme, but was immediately provided with an Attendership in the Hoozur, as there was at that time no vacancy. Subsequently, he was promoted to the office of Vernacular Accountant, in which he still continues. It will be thus seen that the break in Ragaviah's service (amounting to one month and twenty-four days, from 1st July to 24th August 1860) was caused by no fault of his own, but was consequent on the reduction of establishment. His subsequent employment as an Attender was due to the fact that senior servants who had lost their appointments by the reduction of establishment had to be provided for before he could be promoted to the post of a clerk. He is reported to be a hardworking and efficient servant. Under these circumstances, I request that the Government will be pleased to exempt Ragaviah from the General Test Examination, in view to the Commissioner admitting Ragaviah's application for the Special Test.

No. 33. ORDER THEREON, 4th July 1868, No. 807.

Under the circumstances represented by the Collector of Coimbatore, the Governor in Council is pleased to exempt Ragaviah, Vernacular Accountant, from the Uncovenanted Civil Service Examination, General Test.
