No. 186.

MEMORANDUM.

The undersigned has the honor to report that, under Section XXXII of the Civil Service Absentee Rules of 1868, the balance subsequent to 1st July 1868, viz., 5 months and 18 days of Mr. Fane's sick leave for 8 months, which began on 19th April last, can be given to him under Sections VI, VII, and VIII of the Rules in question.

2. Section XXIX of the said Rules allows an Officer to take under their provision the aggregate amount of furlough and sick leave which remained at his credit under the Rules of 1864. This, in Mr. Fane's case, amounted on 1st July to 9 months and 9 days. Thus, upon production of a further medical certificate, Mr. Fane can be granted furlough for 3 months and 21 days under Sections VI, VII, and VIII, in extension of the 5 months and 18 days to which he is now eligible.

No. 187.

ORDER THEREON, 28th July 1868, No. 905.

As it appears that the Order, No. 839, dated 13th July 1868, was founded upon an erroneous interpretation of the Furlough Rules of 1868 conveyed to Government in a dimi-official communication received from the Examiner of Claims, the Government direct that that Order be cancelled, and that the official report subsequently submitted by the Examiner of Claims, dated 21st July 1868, be communicated to Mr. Fane, who will, if necessary, be allowed the benefit of the Furlough Rules of 1868.

(True Extract).
