Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Department, 23rd January 1868.

Read the following :—

No. 114. Proceedings of the Government of India, Financial Department, dated Fort William, 17th December 1867, No. 2966.

Accounts.

Read again Financial Resolution, No. 918, dated 22nd February 1867, regarding the mode of treating in the Public accounts the penalties levied on Native States for the robbery of Mails within their limits.

Read, also, an Order passed in the Foreign Department, No. 1279, dated 29th July, directing that the fund arising out of fines levied for Mail robberies should be a general fund for all Rajpootana, and not one for each Political Agency.

RESOLUTION.—In supersession of the Orders passed in this Department on the 22nd February 1867, the Governor General in Council directs that the penalties in question should be credited as assets of a Local Fund, from which all expenses incurred for increasing the security of the Mails are to be defrayed.

ORDERED that the foregoing Resolution be sent to the Director General of the Post Office in India, the Foreign Department, and the Comptroller General of Accounts.
