17th July 1869.

No. 125. Read the following letter from J. YOUNG, Esq., to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Cuddalore, 5th July 1869.

I have the honour to request that you will bring to the notice of Government that, belonging to a family which has long served the Madras Government, (my father was Surgeon General and two of my brothers have died in the Military Service of this presidency,) I determined to come out to this country in the hope of obtaining employment in the Uncovenanted Civil Service. I arrived in December last and have ever since been engaged in studying the vernacular and the subjects prescribed for the Special Test Examination. I now find that the rules prescribe that, before being admitted to that examination, I should pass the General Test Examination. As the General Test Examination seems to be intended to prevent uneducated persons from entering the service, I beg to inform you that I have gone through the ordinary course of an English education at schools in Edinburgh, Sunderland, and Aylesbury, and as a strict interpretation of the rules in my case will cause a loss of more than twelve months, I respectfully request that I may be exempted from the General Test Examination. I am informed that a similar exemption has been granted by Government in many similar cases.

2. If you desire any further information with regard to me, my brother, Lieutenant T. H. B. Young, Superintendent of Police, South Arcot, will be glad to supply it.

No. 126. ORDER THEREON, 17th July 1869, No. 991.

The Governor in Council is pleased, as a special case, to exempt Mr. J. Young from passing the Uncovenanted Civil Service Examination, General Test.

Sir,
I have the honor to request that you will bring to the notice of Government, that belonging to a family which has long served the Madras Government (my father was Surgeon General & two of my brothers have died in the Military Service of this Presidency) I determined to come out to this Country in the hope of obtaining Employment in the Uncourtened Civil Service. I arrived in December last and have ever since been engaged in studying the vernacular and the Subjects prescribed for the Special Test Examination. I now find that the rules prescribe, that before being admitted to that Exami-nation I should pass the General test Examination - As the General test Examination seems to be intended to prevent uneducated persons from entering the Service. I beg to inform you that I have gone thro' the ordinary course of an English Education at Schools in Edinburgh Sunderland and Hylisbury and as a strict interpretation of the rules in my case will cause a loss of more than 12 months I respectfully request that I may be exempted from the General Test Examination. I am informed that a similar exemption has been granted by Government in many similar cases.

If you desire any further information with regard to me my brother Lieutenant J. H. D. Young Superintendent of Police South Street will be glad to supply it.

I beg to remain
Sir

Your most Obedt. servant.

Mr. John Young of Edinburgh resided in my house and under my care as a private pupil for one year commencing the 5th Aug. 1867. During that period he conducted himself with the utmost propriety & industry, that I do not recollect to have had occasion to find serious fault with him. He has many fair abilities.
