Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Department,

27th January 1869.

No. 146. Read the following letter from the Accountant General, Madras, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Fort Saint George, 17th December 1868, No. 2053.

Examiner of Claims' Department.

I have the honor, with reference to Proceedings of Government in the Public Department, dated the 25th April 1861, No. 590, to inquire whether, as the Uncovenanted Service Examination Rules have lately been made much more stringent, and now apply to posts, the salary of which is Rupees 20 a month, and also to temporary establishments, Government consider that Hospital writers should still continue to be exempted from the General Test Examination.

2. I may mention that the salary of the Clerk entertained in the Lock Hospital lately established, whose case has necessitated this reference, has not been admitted by the Examiner of Claims, pending receipt of the orders of Government, which I now request.

No. 147. ORDER THEREON, 27th January 1869, No. 115.

The Government see no reason for relaxing the Uncovenanted Civil Service Examination Rules in favor of Hospital Writers, unless it can be shown that they must have some scientific or technical knowledge which cannot at present be found in connexion with the education which would enable the candidate to go up for the Uncovenanted Civil Service Examination.

FROM The ACCOUNTANT GENERAL,
TO THE GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

To The Chief Secretary
to Government
Public Department

I have the honor to refer to the proceedings of Government in the Public Department dated the 24th April 1868, bearing relation to the temporary establishment of Hospital Writers, as the Government have lately been much more stringent and unsparingly applied to the salary of which is Rs. 20 a month and also to Temporary Establishments Government consider that Hospital Writers should still continue to be exempted from the General Examinations.

I may mention that the salary of the Clerk entertained in the Lock Hospital lately established, whose case has been referred to this reference, has not been admitted by the Examination of Claims pending receipt of the orders of Government which I now request.

I have the honor to be,

1. The first part of the document is a list of names and dates, which appears to be a record of some kind. The names are written in a cursive script, and the dates are in a more formal, printed style. The list is organized into two columns, with names on the left and dates on the right.

2. The second part of the document is a series of handwritten notes or entries. These are written in a cursive script and are organized into a list format. The notes appear to be related to the names and dates in the first part, possibly providing additional information or details about the individuals listed.

3. The third part of the document is a series of handwritten notes or entries, similar to the second part. These are also written in a cursive script and are organized into a list format. The notes appear to be related to the names and dates in the first part, possibly providing additional information or details about the individuals listed.

4. The fourth part of the document is a series of handwritten notes or entries, similar to the second and third parts. These are also written in a cursive script and are organized into a list format. The notes appear to be related to the names and dates in the first part, possibly providing additional information or details about the individuals listed.

5. The fifth part of the document is a series of handwritten notes or entries, similar to the second, third, and fourth parts. These are also written in a cursive script and are organized into a list format. The notes appear to be related to the names and dates in the first part, possibly providing additional information or details about the individuals listed.
