3. There is, I respectfully submit, no apparent, or valid reason, why the appointment of Protector of Emigrants should not be treated in the same manner as all other appointments, both Covenanted and Uncovenanted, as regards privilege leave. I beg, therefore, that Government will be pleased to grant my request, and order that my full salary during the time I was absent on privilege leave be paid to me, and a moiety to the Acting Officer.

From the Examiner of Claims, to the Acting Collector of Sea Customs, and Acting Protector of Emigrants, Madras; dated Fort Saint George, 1st September 1868, No. 939.

As Government, in their Order, No. 1368, dated 3rd December 1864, ruled that full pay of the Protector of Emigrants is payable to the officer actually performing the duties of that appointment, Mr. Leman is entitled to Rupees 250 per mensem from 6th August. His bill has been altered accordingly.

2. Tax of one Anna was overcharged upon the acting allowance as Collector of Sea Customs, which has been refunded.

3. The net amount of these bills, thus corrected, amounts to Rupees 1969-9-1, as shown below:—

to which he claims upon has nothing to do with the position at issue. It was not because he transferred an ~~unemployment~~ Office and his claim to a portion of the salary of Protector of Emigrants for the period of his absence in ~~London~~ ~~was~~ ~~disallowed~~ but because the app't. was not created as a substitution app't., but as an additional app't., therefore the salary should be to the original app't. The migration for which is an additional reason for allowing the addition for in 1884.

A. J. S.
19th June 1889

I submit the Protection of Emigrants the app't. office in the Unemployment Office. I think the decision in W. G. G. G. case is erroneous. It is alleged that the Protection of Emigrants is to be treated differently from other offices for two reasons.

1. Because it is an office not to be held charitably but in conjunction with another office.
 2. Because the salary is to be paid for Emigration fees.
- I think these arguments I object that -

There is no reason why the office should not be held separately if a person in other respects competent and appropriate could be found to hold it. It has often given conjunction with other appointments because the salary is small & the number of officers connected with trade, shipping & maritime interests & is limited. The office might be given apart. — But do I see why the fact that the salary is extended to the holder for fees should take the office from the ordinary category of minor offices. The half-crown for judges are to be paid for fees. Does that constitute treating them in an exceptional manner when on private leave or vacation?
I would treat the office of Protector of Imports like any other office in the uncovered service. P.

The Government Order dated 3rd Decr. 1864, No. 1368, showed, I think, he followed in the present instance.
As the salary assigned to the office of Collector of Imports is drawn from two funds created by debts to meet India & Maritime Surveys operations, I am not clear that this office can properly be regarded & treated as an uncovered service appointment of the ordinary kind. The pay is small enough & ought to be drawn as a whole by whomever is doing the Surveys work.
