Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Department, 24th August 1869.

No. 172. Read the following letter from Messrs. HIGGINBOTHAM AND CO., to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Madras, 17th August 1869.

We have the honour to request you will bring to the notice of Government that we are now going to press with a new edition of "Buchanan's Travels in Mysore, Canara, and Malabar," in two octavo volumes, illustrated.

2. It is a work which is exceedingly scarce. The outlay will be large, and we should be very grateful for the support of Government in the undertaking, as the demand in this country for such books is so limited and the sale slow.

3. We take this opportunity of tendering our thanks for the liberal support Government accorded us in "Wilks' History of Mysore," our last large publication.

No. 173. ORDER THEREON, 24th August 1869, No. 1184.

Messrs. Higginbotham and Co. are requested to send to Government twenty-five copies of the new edition, when published, of "Buchanan's Travels in Mysore, Canara, and Malabar."
