Read the following papers :—

No. 154. From the Acting Inspector General of Ordnance and Magazines, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Fort Saint George, 16th September 1868, No. 190.

Ordnance Department.

Adverting to Order of Government,* paragraph 6, on the subject of future supplies of black-lead pencils for the Stationery Depôt, I have the honor to state, for the information of Government, that the Collector of Madras, through the Revenue Board, has, on a late occasion, complained of the quality of the pencils supplied from the Depôt for his Office.

* No. 1391, dated 15th December 1863.

2. A sample pencil of those complained of passed through this Office, and I have no hesitation in saying, that it was of a most inferior quality, the manufacturer's name thereon being "Englehardt."

3. The Superintendent of Stationery informs me that pencils from the makers, as per margin, continue to be sent out, though, from the above-quoted Order of Government, it was expected that future supplies would have been only of "Cohen's" manufacture.
