8th September 1869.

No. 50. Read the following letter from the Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department, (Public,) to the Secretary to the Government of the Punjab ; dated Simla, 23rd August 1869, No. 3859.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, No. 1979, dated the 1st ultimo, submitting a question regarding the title of Military Officers and Chaplains visiting a hill sanitarium to gratuitous medical attendance, and requesting an authoritative ruling as to the persons entitled, when residing at such station, to the privilege for themselves and their families.

2. In reply, I am to quote the decision of the Government of India, on a former occasion, on a similar reference,* and to state that the ruling therein laid down holds good whatever the circumstances are under which an officer and his family are resident at a hill station, and further that all officers and their families, who are entitled to gratuitous attendance in a cantonment or civil station, are entitled to it at any other place where there is a Medical Officer paid by Government for staff or general duties.
