Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Department, 16th September 1869.

No. 84. Read the following letter from the Acting Protector of Emigrants, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Madras, 8th September 1869, No. 90-M.

I have the honour to report the arrival, on the 20th July last, of the ship Monmouthshire, with twenty-seven return immigrants from the Mauritius; of these twenty-six embarked at their own expense, and one named Condapen, an incorrigible character, at the expense of Government.

2. The Immigrant No. 26 in the list was not on board, but the number was made up by the addition of a female named Alamaloo not in the list. The immigrants were examined by me, and stated that they were perfectly satisfied with their treatment on board.

3. It has hitherto been usual for the Colonial authorities to address Government direct, and, on a reference from Government, the usual report is made by the Protector.

4. As, however, some time has elapsed without any such reference having been made, I have thought it best to submit the above report.

From Mr. W. J. ARGENT, Chief Clerk, to the Protector of Emigrants, Madras; dated Port Louis, Mauritius, 30th June 1869.

Embarked on Passports.

I have the honour to inform you that the Indian Immigrants, mentioned in the accompanying list, have been allowed by me to proceed to Madras on board of the ship Monmouthshire, and that the passage money has been paid to the Captain.

Besides the immigrants named in the enclosed list, there is an incorrigible character embarked, named Condapen. The authority for the payment of his passage money (£4) is herein enclosed.

(Signed) W. J. ARGENT,
Chief Clerk.
