The question having been raised what classes of Uncovenanted Servants are entitled to gratuitous medical attendance at their own houses, the Governor General in Council has had, under his consideration, the necessity of laying down some authoritative ruling on the subject for general observance in the Bengal Presidency, and, in consultation with the Inspector General of Hospitals, Indian Medical Department, His Excellency in Council has been pleased to determine that Civil Surgeons should attend personally all Uncovenanted Officers, living at the head-quarter station of the district, whose appointments are notified in the Official Gazette by the Government of India, or by any local Government or Administration.

2. In any station where there is an Apothecary, Sub-Assistant Surgeon, or Hospital Assistant, the duty of such Officers should be to attend at their own residences the upper subordinate grades of Government servants, including clerks, whose appointments are not gazetted.

3. As regards Government servants of inferior grades, Dispensaries and General or Civil Hospitals are provided for them at most stations. The servants of Government employes should also be treated at those Dispensaries or Hospitals.

4. His Excellency in Council is, however, of opinion that, in all cases of emergency, or of great danger or difficulty, the attendance of the Civil Surgeon should be given when applied for by the subordinate medical attendant.
