Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Department, 2nd February 1869.

No. 7. Read the following letter from the Acting President to the Vagrants' Home Committee, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Strangers' Home, 21st December 1868.

I have the honor to request the instructions of Government on the case of William Corless, now an inmate of the Strangers' Home. He has been an inmate for some length of time.

2. William Corless states that he enlisted and came out about 1857 or 1858, and served for three years under the name of William Ball, in the 6th Bengal European Regiment; that he was discharged being ruptured, but in hopes of bettering himself he refused a passage to England, and remained in the country, where he has been employed on the construction of Railways, and the like works. He is now destitute and in bad health, and in consultation with Members of the Committee, I beg to recommend that he be sent to England at the public cost.

P. S.-W. Corless has lost all his papers.

No. 227

This is to certify that William Corless is suffering from Inguinal Hernia of the right side.
