Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Department.

4th November 1869.

No. 38. Read the following letter from the Acting Magistrate of Tinnevely, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Tinnevely, 26th October 1869, No. 421.

I have the honour to forward, herewith, copy of a letter from the General Charge Deputy Magistrate reporting on the sanitary arrangements made during the annual festival at the Strivilliputtur Pagoda, in the month of August last, and to request sanction for the disbursement of Rupees 43-12-0, being a moiety of the amount expended, i. e., Rupees 87-8-1, the other moiety having been contributed by the Dharmakartas of the Pagoda.

From the General Charge Deputy Collector, Tinnevely, to the Acting Collector of Tinnevely, dated Strivilliputtur, 22nd October 1869, No. 67.

I have the honour to report on the sanitary arrangements adopted during the late Audy festival at Strivilliputtur.

2. The Audy festival commenced on the 2nd August 1869, and continued nine days. The number of visitors from different villages was about 30,000 persons. On the 5th and 8th, which were the great days of the feast, the number who visited amounted to about 20,000 and 25,000, respectively.

3. The sanitary measures adopted were as follow :—

Four latrines were erected, one on each side of the town.

Fourteen coolies (Koravers) were entertained for cleaning the streets and three carts for removing the rubbish.

4. In consequence of the scarcity of water at the commencement of the festival, two water pandals were established, but were discontinued immediately on the fall of rain and the receipt of water in the tanks

5. An Overseer was employed to superintend the whole work.

6. The public health was good, and there was no sickness whatever.

7. The Police were vigilant. Eight cases of nuisance and three of theft were reported. All but one case of theft were punished.

8. In this year, the car was not drawn till twenty-seven days, owing to the dissensions between the town people and the Dharmakartas.

9. The total expenditure was Rupees 87-8-1, of which a moiety was contributed by the pagoda, and I respectfully request that sanction may be obtained for the disbursement of the remainder, viz., Rupees 43-12-0.
