Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Department,

5th February 1869.

No. 42. Read the following letter from Messrs. TRUBNER and Co., London, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated London, 28th October 1869.

We take the liberty of sending, herewith, a copy of the second improved edition of "Outlines of Indian Philology," by J. Beames of the Indian Civil Service, selling price 5s., in the hope that the same may be found worthy of the patronage of your Government.

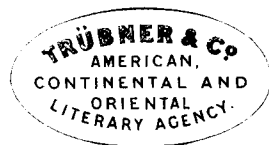

2. It is considered to be well-suited for young men studying for the Indian Civil Service, as it is the only book which gives, in a cheap and comprehensive form, a general view of the languages of India, and is written by a gentleman who speaks several of them fluently, and has been stationed in all parts of India.

No. 43. To Messrs. TRUBNER and Co., 60 Paternoster Row, London; dated Fort Saint George, 5th February 1869, No. 160.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 28th October 1868, with the copy of Beames' "Outlines of Indian Philology," which accompanied it, and to inform you that the Madras Government will be glad to take fifty copies of the work.

2. The packet, containing these copies, you will be good enough to send to the India Office, addressed to the Chief Secretary, for despatch to this Presidency.

(Signed) R. S. ELLIS,
Chief Secretary.

To the Financial Secretary of the Government of the Presidency of Madras.

Sir,
We take the liberty of sending herewith a copy of the second improved Edition of "Outlines of Indian Philology" by J. Beames of the Indian Civil Service, selling price 5s., in the hope that the same may be found worthy of the Patronage of your Government.

It is considered to be well suited for young men studying for the Indian Civil Service, as it is the only book which gives in a cheap and comprehensive form a general view of the languages of India, and is written by a gentleman who speaks several of them

If we take away 10 take 50. I think and calculate that the Masters of the House of the author are 10 will be 10 again.

Memo for users.

We are being threatened with an inundation of works in Philology. This little book is of interest doubtless to philologists but I do not think it is of a character which makes it necessary that you should take copies
