Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Department, 20th December 1869.

No. 118. Read the following letter from the Colonial Secretary, Mauritius, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Mauritius, 11th November 1869, No. 1790-A.

In reply to your letter, No. 1295, of the 16th September last, reporting that the usual letter of advice had not been sent by the Monmouthshire when conveying return coolies to Madras, I am directed by the Governor to inform you that the rules in practice were strictly followed in this case. The Protector of Emigrants at Madras was informed of the departure of the ship, and of the names of the passengers embarked. It is not customary to do anything more, nor does any law or regulation require that anything more should be done in such cases. It is only when the ship despatched comes under the legal definition of a "passenger ship" that the announcement of her departure is forwarded to the Government of the Presidency to which she goes.

2. I am to state, however, that, in future, the letter of advice, and its enclosures, will, in all cases, be sent to the Secretary to the Government of Madras, instead of being forwarded to the Protector of Emigrants at that Presidency.

No. 119. ORDER THEREON, 20th December 1869, No. 1746.

Communicated to the Protector of Emigrants, with reference to G. O., 16th September last, No. 1294.
