No. 122. Read the following letter from the Colonial Secretary, Mauritius, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Mauritius, 13th November 1869, No. 1807-A.

With reference to your letter, No. 1301, of the 17th September last, pointing out a discrepancy between the number of invalids found on board the Howard and the number as stated in my letter of the 5th June, I am directed by the Governor to inform you that the Immigration Inspecting Officer, here, states that the number of invalids embarked was forty-two, and that, as regards the man Vedagiri, to whom reference is made, he was embarked as cook, but that when on board he complained of a wound he had in the foot (although he was not an invalid) upon which another immigrant, who was proceeding on passport, and had paid his passage to the Captain, agreed to supply his place, which the Medical Officer said he would explain on the arrival of the ship at Madras.

2. Instructions have been given which will, His Excellency trusts, obviate the recurrence of such a discrepancy in future.
