Dated	17-3-19	1869

Not to be folded or roughly handled

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Department, 19th March 1869.

No. 148. Read the following letter from Messrs. TRUBNER & Co., Booksellers, &c., London, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated London, 22nd January 1869.

We have taken the liberty of forwarding to you, by this Mail, a copy of Ikhwánu-s-Safá, or, Brothers of Purity, translated from the Hindustani by Professor John Dawson, M. R. A. S., Staff College, Sandhurst, hoping that you will bestow your patronage on the same.

2. The Ikhwánu-s-Safá is a standard Hindustani work which is used as a text book both in India and England. Those who have to prepare themselves for examination in it, are often placed in situations where no competent instruction can be obtained. A translation, therefore at once accurate and exact, with which the student may compare and correct his own work, will doubtless prove a great help and advantage to him. The selling price of the work is 7s.

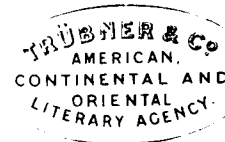

No. 149. ORDER THEREON, 19th March 1869, No. 350.

The Government do not require any copies of Ikhwánu-s-Safá.
(True Extract).
