Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Department, 20th March 1869.

No. 170. Read the following letter from Messrs. TRUBNER and Co., Booksellers, &c., London, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated London, 5th February 1869.

We have great pleasure in sending you, herewith, the parcel note of our shipment of twenty copies of Wilson's works, Volume 9, which we trust you will receive perfect and in order. We have taken the liberty of including in our shipment five parcels, with which we beg you to do what is necessary, and have distributed as directed. We enclose the invoice for Wilson's works £9-18-9, of which we beg you to direct payment at your convenience, with the other sums of £9-11-0 and £18-18-0, particulars of which have been sent.

No. 171. ORDER THEREON, 20th March 1869, No. 361.

The Accountant General will arrange for the remittance to Messrs. Trübner and Co. of the sum of £9-18-9.

2. Messrs. Trübner and Co. will be informed that no communication from them has reached the Madras Government, relating to the particulars of the sum of £9-11-0, mentioned at the close of their present letter, and that the sum of £18-18-0, therein also referred to, was remitted to them by the Accountant General in February 1869.

3. It will be intimated to Messrs. Trübner and Co. that Mr. A. J. Arbuthnot has ceased to be Chief Secretary to the Madras Government. Mr. R. S. Ellis is at present holding that office.
