To,

Genl R. S. Ellis Esq
Chief Secretary to Government
Fort St George

Sir,

With reference to the removal of Mr. Lister to Ganjam and the appointment as my head assistant of Mr. Woodroffe I have ~~the honor to report that~~ the latter gentleman does not propose to join

his office before the 5th June next; meanwhile
I have placed Mr. Gibble in charge, and he is now carrying on the Meat assistants' duties as well as his own.

2 I do not know
why the Revenue Board asked that additional assistants be sent to me, but it is true that the work of the settlement is now going on and that I am at times
very much pressed, &
as my other assistant, Mr. Gibson, is unequal from weak health to bear exposure I have kept

kept him at Cuddalore, so that it is now very necessary & desirable that some one be sent to act as Meat assistant,
and I willingly bear testimony to Mr. Gibble's fitness for the Post if Government will be pleased to nominate him, and in this event I shall need another competent officer in his place, and one who is invested with the full powers of a Magistrate.

3. ~~Should Government~~ will see the urgency of the occasion I do not imagine that

that I am asking for assistance which Scouts do without. 4114
