Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Department,
20th April 1869.

Read the following papers :—

No. 184. From the Magistrate of Bellary, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Ramandroog, 24th March 1869, No. 20.

Adverting to the Order of Government, dated 5th November last, No. 1376, I have the honor to recommend the extension of Act X. of 1865, Madras, (Towns' Improvement Act,) to the town of Gooty.

2. According to the last census the population numbered 4099 souls. This has reference merely to the present town, but I am of opinion that a new town, for which provision is being made, will spring up in the vicinity of the Railway station which is embraced within the Municipal limits specified below. This will augment the number of residents, and, as several roads converge at this point, I anticipate its importance as a place of trade being considerably enhanced when the railway is opened to it. I believe it is also in contemplation to have a body of troops stationed there.

3. The following are the limits proposed :—

On the west from the eastern calingula of the tank to the rocks at the rear of the station ground.

On the south from the eastern calingula to the junction of the Anantapur and Tadpatry roads.

On the east from the above junction to the base of the Gooty rock.

On the north by a line starting from the above point, embracing the lower Fort, skirting Munro's tank, and joining the rocks in rear of the station ground.

4. Within the above limits I request that the necessary Notification, declaring Gooty and its suburbs to be a town united for the purposes of Act X. of 1865, may be published in the Fort Saint George Gazette.

5. The following residents are recommended as fit persons to be Town Commissioners in addition to the ex-officio members :—

John Kelsall, Esq., Head Assistant Collector.
K. Nursinga Rau, Tahsildar.
B. Sooba Rau, District Moonsiff.
Mr. H. J. Scott, Apothecary, Civil Dispensary.
Ismailkhan, Inspector of Police.
T. H. Going, Esq., Madras Railway.
R. Trienibaka Rau, Head Clerk.
B. Krishna Rau, Sheristadar.
Goonta Venkiah, Merchant.
Kaji Abdulbashad.
Ballagall Rungasai.
Jonnagundla Moodelliar.

6. The estimates for the year 1869-70 are almost complete, and will be submitted as soon as the operation of the Act has been extended to the town by the above Notification.

No. 185. From the Magistrate of Bellary, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Bellary, 29th March 1869, No. 27.

In anticipation of the extension* of Act X. of 1865, (Madras,) to the town of Gooty, I have the honor to submit, for
