Memorandum
called for by Chief Secy -

In G. O. 13 - the March 1899, the publication for two months from that date, of the monthly returns of Imports and Exports received from the Customs House, was sanctioned.

The work is done on contract by Messrs Graves & Co. at the High Court itself, which is found to be a great convenience, and at rates so low, that the saving by doing it at the Government Press would be trifling. The work

This will be the only printing work except under very special circumstances, given out in future
