Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Department, 26th April 1869.

No. 216. Read the following letter from the Acting Supervisor of the Government Press, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Madras, 14th April 1869, No. 46.

I have the honor to forward the accompanying bill for Rupees 2300, for the second of the two printing machines for the Penitentiary, the purchase of which was sanctioned in the Order of Government, dated 22nd February 1869, No. 237, paragraph 9.

2. Four thousand Rupees were sanctioned for the purchase of two machines, and 2000 have already been paid for one of them. The machine now purchased could not be obtained for less than the sum abovenamed, and consequently sanction for the excess, Rupees 300, is now required. I have the honor to request that it may be accorded.

No. 217. ORDER THEREON, 26th April 1869, No. 535.
