Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Department, 16th January 1869.

No. 84. Read the following letter from the Magistrate of the Godavery District, to the Chief Secretary to Government; Fort Saint George; dated Cocanada, 6th January 1869, No. 4.

I have the honor to inform you that the erection of three latrines on the east side of Cocanada is necessary for the proper sanitary conservancy of the town.

2. There is but one plot of ground on which these can be erected. An open sandy swamp, belonging to and lately purchased by a Mr. L. Gondolph, an inhabitant of this town, and he absolutely declines to either sell or rent any portion of this land to the Municipality of Cocanada for the purpose required, though applied to more than once.

3. The land is so low and swampy as not to be adapted for building purposes, and the only use it can be put to, so far as I am aware, is to plant cocoanut trees on it, and the advisability of this is, I believe, questionable in a pecuniary point of view.

4. I have, therefore, the honor to request that Government will, under the provisions of Act VI. of 1857, direct that the land required for these three latrines and approaches thereto, is land required for a public purpose, and that it shall, as such, be taken possession of by me.

5. I ask this, because there is no other proper site for the latrines, because they are absolutely necessary, and because the owner has absolutely refused to grant the sites on any terms whatever.

No. 85. ORDER THEREON, 16th January 1869, No. 65.

The Collector of the Godavery District will be authorized to take possession of the land referred to, under the provisions of Act VI. of 1857, on the Government being furnished with the necessary description and measurements to admit of their being particularized in the Declaration, and on the distinct understanding that it is impossible to find any other suitable site for the purpose for which the land in question is required. The Government are desirous that this point should be carefully ascertained before enforcing the Act.
