I have the honour to report that on the return to duty* of Mr. Gorman from the one month's privilege leave granted him on the 6th† January 1869, I have transferred Mr. Sub-Engineer Bance from the Cuddapah to Madnapalli Range for employment on the road from Kadri to Pulivendla, and beg that Government will sanction the entertainment of the establishment noted in the margin.

No. 100.

ORDER THEREON, 3rd March 1869, No. 689.

ESTABLISHMENT, No. 11.

As Mr. Bance has shown himself to be totally unfit to be entrusted with the charge of a Range, the Government sanction employment being found for him in the manner recommended in the above letter as a temporary arrangement, and approve of the proposed establishment for him being entertained; but His Excellency in Council desires that the Superintending Engineer will call upon Mr. Bance to take measures to place himself on the Pension Establishment.
