Sir,

With reference to Dr Mac Kinnon's letter to Government, suggesting that the should be admitted in to the school by a by law, referred to the Director of the Monaghan Choulby, I have been requested to state that the Director seems the admission of such children to be in accordance with the original object of the school which was for the reception of foundling stray and orphan children; the children as now it is now proposed to receive are
