3. It should be a rule that all Officers, whether Uncovenanted or Military, who are called on to perform the duties usually performed by Covenanted Civilians should be required to pass the same departmental examinations.

ORDERED, that a copy of the foregoing Resolution be forwarded to the Governments of Madras, Bombay, Bengal, North-Western Provinces; the Chief Commissioners of the Central Provinces, Oudh, British Burmah, and Mysore; Coorg, and the Resident at Hyderabad, for information and guidance.

Ordered, that a copy of the foregoing Resolution be forwarded to the Government of the Punjab for information and guidance, and with the remark that it is not in contemplation to subject Military Officers in Civil employ, who are already members of the Staff Corps, to any examination other than such departmental examinations as they are liable to in common with other Officers in the same position.

Ordered, also, that a copy of the foregoing Resolution be forwarded to the Foreign Department for information.

RESOLUTION.

In February 1868, two questions were submitted by the Chief Commissioner of British Burmah for the consideration of the Government of India, in the Home Department, viz. :—

- (1)—Whether Military Officers holding acting appointments in the Commission should be required to pass the examination prescribed for candidates for the Staff Corps in Civil employ; and
- (2)—Whether Uncovenanted Officers appointed to the Commission should be subjected to a similar examination. The first question was disposed of in the Resolution of the 31st March 1868. With a view to the settlement of the second question, the Government of Madras was requested to submit a copy of the rules in force in that Presidency with respect to the examination of candidates for employment in the Uncovenanted Service, the plan of subjecting such candidates to examination having been there very widely applied. Other Local Governments and Administrations were at the same time called upon to report whether some such system of examination might not be adopted in other Presidencies and Provinces, at least in the case of European candidates for employment, either in the Commissions of the Non-Regulation Provinces, or in the subordinate executive service in the Regulation Provinces.

2. On consideration of the replies now received, the Governor General in Council is of opinion that it is not desirable to lay down any general rule requiring Uncovenanted Officers to pass an examination similar to that to which Military Officers, candidates for the Staff Corps, are liable. To enjoin any such examination previous to appointment would probably narrow the field of choice to an embarrassing degree, or else the rule would have to be violated by the grant of frequent exemptions. On the whole, therefore, the Governor General in Council thinks that it is better to leave the first appointment to the discretion of the authorities exercising the patronage. But the Local Governments and Administrations should lay down strict rules if this has not been already done, requiring the Officers so appointed to undergo an examination within a reasonable period after appointment in special departmental subjects, and, if necessary, in languages, as an indispensable condition of the permanent retention of their appointments.
