Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Department, 16th July 1869.

No. 117. Read the following Proceedings of the Government of India, Financial Department, dated Simla, 25th June 1869, No. 1321.

Read the following correspondence:—

Proceedings in the Financial Department, (leave and allowances,) Nos. 57 to 63, February 1869.

Despatch to Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India, No. 57, dated 9th March 1869.

Despatch from Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India, No. 169, dated 29th April 1869.

RESOLUTION.—The Governor General in Council observes that Mr. S. S. Hogg, a member of the Covenanted Civil Service, and Chairman of the Justices of the Peace for the town of Calcutta, applied in January 1869 for a furlough to which he was entitled under the rules applicable to the Civil Service.

2. By the Municipal Act, however, for the town of Calcutta, the Justices are restrained from giving any absentee allowance to the Chairman, which might cause a greater expenditure from the Municipal Fund than would have been incurred had no leave been granted.

3. On consideration of the matter, the Governor General in Council ruled “that, so far as the Government is concerned, Mr. Hogg, and all officers similarly situated, should be allowed leave of absence on precisely the terms that would apply to them if they were Government servants; that the Justices of the town of Calcutta and other Municipal Corporations, concerned in like cases, should not be required to provide, on the whole, any allowances in excess of those which they pay when the officer is present at his post; but that they should be invited to grant to the officer to whom they may give leave of absence whatever sum may be saved by the employment of a substitute on lower allowances than those received by the regular incumbent.

When this is done, Government should supplement the absentee allowance so granted, so as to bring up the whole absentee allowance to the amount to which, by the rules of the Government service, the officer would, were he in the service of Government, be entitled.”

4. This decision having been confirmed by the Secretary of State for India, the rule will be generally observed.

Ordered that this Resolution be published in the Gazette of India, and communicated to the Foreign, Home, Military, Public Works and Legislative Departments, the Governments of Bengal, Madras, Bombay, the North-Western Provinces and the Punjab, the Comptroller General of Accounts, the Accountants General in Bengal, Madras, Bombay, the North-Western Provinces, the Punjab, and British Burmah, and the Deputy Accountants General in the Central Provinces, Hyderabad and Mysore.
