The fact decided that Dr. Donnell granted two certificates knowing them to be unfounded.

The decision of the Civil Court whether Dr. Donnell of the accusations made that he had received a bribe of 3000 R. to grant these certificates but it does not, as remarked by Dr.
Mackenzie touch
the question that he Dr. Donnell gave the certificates knowing

The Court of the Court's judgment affords no ground for withdrawing
the sentence - W. J.

The motive was not as was then strongly suspected, a bribe - but the evidence was conclusive that there was no foundation for the certificates
under these circumstances I conclude that the Court will not be fit to withdraw or modify their sentence. -
