No. 78. Read the following letter from the President of the Strangers' Home, Madras, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Madras, 8th September 1870:—

A youth named W. Gleed has been, for some time, an inmate of the Home, having found his way across from Bombay in search of employment. He states that he is twenty-two years of age, but does not look more than eighteen, and of delicate habits of body.

2. He states that he was born in India, his father being a Sergeant in the Bombay Artillery. His father left the Army and went to England, but returned about ten years ago to Bombay, and very shortly died. W. Gleed was educated in one of the public institutions in Bombay, and entered the Government Telegraph Department and then the Persian Telegraph.

3. He was dismissed from the latter employment for insubordination, and he has since been quite destitute and apparently quite without funds.

4. Endeavours have been made to get employment for him here, but in vain; and his case is quite hopeless.

5. I beg that the Committee may be authorized to send him back to Bombay at public expense, and that the Bombay Government may be asked to do something for him.

6. He is quite a lad and very steady; and I hope that his insubordination was a mere youthful indiscretion.

No. 79. ORDER THEREON, 16th September 1870, No. 1179.

The Government authorize the Committee of the Strangers' Home at Madras to send W. Gleed back to Bombay at the public expense, and resolve that the following letter be addressed to the Government of Bombay.

(Signed) R. S. ELLIS,
Chief Secretary.

No. 80. To the Chief Secretary to the Government of Bombay, dated Ootacmund, 16th September 1870, No. 1179-A.

I am directed to transmit copy of the Proceedings of this Government, dated this day, and to state that, as Bombay presents more prospects of employment, W. Gleed, the youth referred to in the Proceedings, has been sent there.

2. It has been ascertained that there is no probability of Gleed obtaining any employment in Madras.

(Signed) R. S. ELLIS,
Chief Secretary.
