Memo for order

The Protector of Emigrants submits for the approval of the Rules he has issued in the subject of the trans-mission to Calcutta of Coolies (Bengal) who was in rare instances he landed in Pondicherry instead of Calcutta. I venture to suggest a modification of Rule 2. which makes it compulsory to send the Coolies by steamer.

A ship may be available at the time & it would be rather hard to visit on the coasts being covered by steam. The words
"Earliest suitable opportunity" would meet the objection
