No. 102.      Read the following letter from the Coroner of Madras, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Madras, 6th October 1870, No. 27:—

I have the honour to report, for the information of His Excellency the Right Honourable the Governor in Council, that, at an inquest held before me in the General Hospital, at Black Town, within the limits of Madras, on the 2nd instant, and, by adjournment, at Anoomuntha Royen Covil Street, China Bazaar Road, on the 5th instant, touching the death of Papoo Chetty, the Jury, after returning as their verdict “accidental death from contusion of the left thigh caused by a Post Office cart-wheel passing over the thigh,” made the following presentment:—“The Jury beg the Coroner to bring to the notice of Government the unnecessary speed at which the Post Office carts usually go through the crowded streets of Black Town.”

No. 103.      ORDER THEREON, 15th October 1870, No. 1301.

Communicated to the Postmaster-General, with a view to his issuing the necessary orders to prevent reckless driving of the Post Office carts.
