Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Department,
10th November 1870.

Read the following :—

No. 64. Proceedings of the Government of India, Financial Department, dated Simla, the 30th September 1870, No. 3798:—

Read the under-mentioned papers relating to an inquiry by the Accountant-General, Bombay, whether Apothecaries, including those in permanent medical charge of civil stations, whose allowances were fixed in Financial Resolution, No. 2599, of the 17th September 1867, and Assistant Apothecaries, are entitled to the extra allowances noted in the margin, in addition to their consolidated salaries:—

Head-money allowance.
Palanquin allowance.
Allowance as ex-officio Secretary to Charitable Dispensaries.

Letter from the Accountant-General, Bombay, No. A-615, dated 11th May 1870.

Office Memorandum to Home Department, No. 1210 of the 17th June.

Do. from do. „ 4185 of the 15th September.

RESOLUTION.—The Governor-General in Council observes that Apothecaries or Assistant Apothecaries in medical charge of civil stations on the consolidated pay authorized for Uncovenanted Medical Officers in Financial Notification, No. 2295, dated 25th April 1867, are not entitled in addition to head-money, or any allowance for a palanquin, or as Secretary to a Charitable Dispensary.

2. Nor was it contemplated that head-money or palanquin allowance should be given to a Medical Warrant Officer who is in receipt of the enhanced pay prescribed for his class in the Government Order in the Military Department, No. 550, of 5th June 1868; but if any such Officer has held his present position from a time preceding the publication of Government General Order, No. 550, of 5th June 1868, and drew, under the old rules, an aggregate of emoluments (including the above items) in excess of the new rate of pay, he may continue to draw such higher amount so long as he holds his present position.

3. Ordinarily, a Medical Warrant Officer, who is not receiving the same salary as an Uncovenanted Medical Officer in medical charge of a civil station, would not be Secretary to a Charitable Dispensary. If, however, any such Warrant Officer, not holding a civil charge, and only in receipt of his warrant grade pay, should occupy the post of Secretary to a Charitable Dispensary, his title to some extra allowance should be referred for the orders of the Government of India.

ORDER.—Ordered that a copy of the foregoing Resolution be sent to the Home and Military Departments for information.

Also, that a copy be sent to the Comptroller-General of Accounts, the Accountants General, Bengal, Madras, Bombay, North-Western Provinces, Punjab, and British Burmah; and the Deputy Accountants General in Hyderabad, Mysore, and the Central Provinces, for guidance.
