Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Department, 18th February 1870.

No. 79. Read the following letter from the Secretary to the Committee for the Examination of Assistants, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Madras, 31st January 1870, No. 354.

I have the honour, by direction of the President, to report, for the information of His Excellency the Right Honourable the Governor in Council, the result of the half-yearly examination of Assistant Collectors according to the Higher and Lower Standard Tests which was held in last month.

2. Of the ten gentlemen who came up for the Higher Standard Examination, eight have passed. Of these—

Mr. W. H. Glenny,
„ J. Wallace,
„ J. B. Spedding,
„ C. A. Bird,
„ J. A. Boyle,

were examined in only those branches of the test in which they had failed on previous occasions. It is not possible to place those gentlemen in order of merit, as Mr. Spedding was exempted by Government from passing in the first language, and so their names are inserted according to seniority in the Service.

3. I am directed to report that Mr. Glenny, having, in December 1868, passed successfully in Decision of Cases, was excused from again taking up those items, although under the new scale they form integral parts of Divisions A. and B. Mr. Wallace having, at the same time, also passed in the group which contained the Decision of Cases, and in the Revenue paper and Revenue History besides, was not called upon on this occasion to pass in the Revenue Case, though only thirty marks had been assigned to him for it. It was thought that, having attained the required standard in the other subjects of the new Revenue Division (A.), he should have the benefit of his former success; but if Government consider it necessary, the Committee will now order him to appear for a special examination in the single subject of Decision of Revenue Case.

4. The three gentlemen who were examined in every subject of the Higher Standard Test passed in order of merit as follows:—

Mr. J. A. Davies.
„ H. R. Farmer.
„ L. McIver.

5. The Committee are particularly satisfied with the whole of the papers submitted by Mr. Davies, and with the one on Law of Evidence by Mr. Farmer. They consider it very creditable, indeed, to the three gentlemen above named that they have passed by the Higher Standard on the first occasion upon which they could do so, the past examination having been the second that has been held since they joined the Service.

6. I am directed to request that Government will be pleased to sanction to the eight Assistant Collectors above named the increased allowance of Rupees 175 per mensem from 18th December 1869, the day after the examination terminated.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Department,

18th February 1870.

7. The unsuccessful candidates are—

Mr. H. Newman who has failed in the languages—Divisions D. and E., and
Mr. T. J. Maltby who has still to pass in Revenue and Law—Divisions A. and B.

8. By the Lower Standard the successful candidates are in order of merit—

Mr. M. R. Weld, and

„ G. K. Chamberlain;

the unsuccessful examinees being

Mr. E. L. Pearse,

„ H. T. Knox,

who have still to pass in Revenue—Division A.

9. Mr. R. Sewell, who had just returned from special leave to England, requested permission to appear for examination in Law of Evidence, which he has been successful in passing.

10. Mr. H. M. Winterbotham, a Civilian of 1869, having been appointed Assistant Collector of Coimbatore, was, in accordance with his request, allowed by the Committee to appear for examination by the Lower Standard in Indian Penal, Criminal Procedure Code, and Law of Evidence. Mr. Winterbotham, however, subsequently withdrew from examination in the two first-named subjects; but his paper on the Law of Evidence, the Committee have much pleasure in stating, is by far the best of all those given in by candidates for the Lower Standard, and to it have been awarded sixty-nine marks out of the maximum of eighty.

No. 80.

ORDER THEREON, 18th February 1870, No. 198.

His Excellency the Governor in Council notices with satisfaction the creditable manner in which Messrs. Davies, Farmer, and McIver have passed the examination for the Higher Standard; and is pleased to sanction the disbursement, from the 18th December last, of the increased allowance of Rupees 175 per mensem to Messrs. W. H. Glenny, J. Wallace, J. B. Spedding, C. A. Bird, J. A. Boyle, J. A. Davies, H. R. Farmer, and L. McIver.
