Sir

I have the honor to inform you that I have collected nearly a thousand in Ruppes from the inhabitants of Panama for the purpose of funding the more expensive part of the old Fort. etc.

The time for the great annual Festival at Radesuram is approaching and some cases of cholera have already been reported from Panamagoody. Unless measures are taken at once to clean the Town of Panama I very much fear that it will be visited with cholera before the end of the festival.

3. With the money I have collected I am getting several malarious places cleaned. But 1000 Rs. will not nearly be sufficient. I would request that another 1000 Rs. at least be granted from the local funds or from any other funds available.

I

4. I would observe that since the Road Cess Act came into force there has not been a single Rupee expended at Ramnagar, although several communications join there with Imperial Road No. 15 and although the Ramnagar Zemindar has paid Rs. 57276-5-10.

5. The inhabitants of Ramnagar are far too few and too poor to think of introducing the Municipal Act.
