Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Department, 21st April 1870.

No. 145. Read the following Despatch from the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for India, to His Excellency the Right Honourable the Governor in Council, Fort Saint George, dated India Office, London, 17th March 1870, No. 7, (Public).

Having had under my consideration in Council the Despatch of your Excellency in Council, dated the 25th of October last, No. 36, stating that you do not consider it necessary that any Civil Servants should be appointed to the Madras establishment in 1872, I have determined in Council that, accordingly, no candidates shall be selected for your Presidency at the ensuing competitive examination.

2. Since the Despatch of your Excellency in Council was written, mine of the 30th of September last, No. 30, will have apprized you that five Civilians were appointed to Madras last year, instead of four, as calculated in Statement B. of your Proceedings of the 20th of October, in consequence of the intimation contained in Viscount Cranborne's Despatch of the 7th of February 1867, No. 6. But, on the other hand, your Government, in the Statement above cited, anticipates the appointment of three Civil Servants in 1871, instead of two, the number indicated in my Despatch of the 20th of January 1869, No. 2. The total numbers computed in your Proceedings are therefore correct.

3. I have to request that your Lordship in Council will, at the earliest possible moment after the receipt of my present Despatch, intimate to me the number of Civilians that you consider should be selected for the Madras Presidency at the open examination of 1871, with a view to appointment to the service in 1873.

4. And it is desirable that the number named should, as far as practicable, be a fixed number applicable to future years, and of which any modification should be recommended only in cases of imperative necessity, and with the longest possible notice.

No. 146. ORDER THEREON, 21st April 1870, No. 486.

Ordered that copies of the foregoing Despatch be furnished to Messrs. Lushington and Grose, and that they be requested to expedite the submission of the report called for in G. O., dated the 25th February last, No. 244.

Nos. 145-146.

Communicating a Despatch from the Secretary of State regarding the appointment of Civil Servants to the Madras Establishment, and requesting Messrs. Inshington and Grosz to expedite the submission of the report called for in G.O., dated 25th February last, No. 244.

2. Since the Despatch of your Excellency in Council was written, mine of the 30th of September last, No 30, will have apprised you that five Civilians were appointed to Madras last year, instead of four, as calculated in Statement B of your Proceedings of the 20th of October in consequence of the intimation contained in Viscount Cranborne's Despatch of the 7th of February of my present Despatch, intimate to me the number of Civilians that you consider should be selected for the Madras Presidency at the open examination of 1871, with a view to appointment to the Service in 1873.

It will be my duty with I determine this, especially now that our Act has been passed, the number of of which is applied in regard provision to a number of houses & their application now for the purpose of service and this difficulty should be pointed out then in reply to the despatch. In a few words we should be asked to expedite the report which is called for.

4. And it is desirable that the number named should, as far as practicable, be a fixed number applicable to future years, and of which any modification should be recommended only in cases of imperative necessity and with the longest possible notice.
I have the honor to be,
My Lord,
