Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Department, 4th January 1870.

No. 7. Read the following letter from the Accountant-General, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Fort Saint George, 7th December 1869, No. 287.

Post Audit Department.]

With reference to paragraph 6 of Government Order, No. 65, dated 16th January 1867, Public Department, I have the honour to inquire whether it is intended by Government to allow Junior Civil Servants, when appointed ~~Assistant~~ Collectors in the Mofussil, the usual seven days' preparation time in addition to the one month allowed them in the above order.

No. 8. ORDER THEREON, 4th January 1870, No. 4.

The order quoted, permitting Junior Civil Servants, on their arrival, to remain one month in Madras before proceeding to take up their appointments in the Mofussil, must be considered as including the seven days for preparation, allowed under the Notification of the Government of India, dated 4th April 1865.
