Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Department,

11th May 1870.

Read again letter from the Government of India, Home Department, (Public,) dated 29th November 1869, No. 5195, and Proceedings of the Government of India, Financial Department, dated 19th March 1870, No. 1792, recorded in Proceedings of Government, 27th January and 4th May 1870.

No. 37. ORDER THEREON, 11th May 1870, No. 591.

Under the orders of the Government of India, dated the 29th November 1869, No. 5195, and the 19th March last, No. 1792, the expenditure from Imperial funds for the purpose of applying the provisions of the Contagious Diseases' Act to the Town of Madras has been limited, after the 1st of July next, to Rupees 2422 per mensem, leaving Rupees 1286 to be met from Local Funds. Of this amount Rupees 750 per mensem have been contributed by the Municipal Commissioners, and Rupees 536 per mensem have to be provided from some other source.

2. His Excellency the Governor in Council resolves, therefore, to set aside Rupees 4824, from the Port Funds, as a contribution to the expenditure required for the efficient working of the Contagious Diseases' Act during the year 1870-71.

3. The Government, while making these arrangements to meet the expenditure on the above account for 1870-71, resolve to direct the Inspector-General of the Indian Medical Department to make a careful inquiry, in communication with the Health Officer, with a view to endeavouring to reduce the expenditure on account of the establishments connected with the working of Act XIV., "The Indian Contagious Diseases' Act, 1868."
