*Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Department,

No. 86. Read the following letter from ARUNDEL TAGG ARUNDEL, Esq., Madras Civil Service, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Pullampett, 15th June 1870:—

With reference to my letter, dated 3rd March last, and to a demi-official letter from the Acting Under Secretary to Government, dated 27th May 1870, I have the honour to inform you that I have this day changed my name by adding the surname of Arundel to that of Tagg.

2. I beg that the necessary alteration may be made in the Civil List.

3. A notice of the change of name will be advertised in the Fort Saint George Gazette.

No. 87. ORDER THEREON, 21st June 1870, No. 785.

Communicated to the Accountant-General.

2. The necessary correction will be made in the Civil List.

(True Extract.)

Chief Secretary.

To the Accountant-General.

To Arundel Tagg Arundel, Esq., Madras Civil Service.

Exd. J. Wright,

From Arundel Tagg Esquire
Madras Civil Service.

To The Chief Secretary
To the Government of Madras.

Sir,

I have the honor to inform you that it is my intention to alter my present name by the addition of the surname of Arundel, so that my full name will be Arundel Tagg Arundel.

2. I beg that you will be so good as to inform me whether the Government will be pleased to recognize the change by Notification in the Fort St. George Gazette, and by making the necessary alteration in the Civil List.

3. To avoid difficulties in official correspondence I should prefer to effect the change on or shortly before the date on which the order of recognition will be passed.

I have the honor to be

Sir
Your most obedient servant

Arundel Tagg
Madras Civil Service.
