Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Department,
28th June 1870.

No. 104. Read the following letter from the Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department, (Public,) to the Secretary to the Government of Bombay, dated Simla, 2nd June 1870, No. 2708 :—

Referring to paragraph 2 of the letter marginally noted, I am directed to state that, in view to the reduction of expenditure in the Medical Department, the Governor-General in Council has under his consideration the whole subject of the establishment and maintenance of Charitable Dispensaries throughout India; and that His Excellency in Council is, therefore, pleased to direct that, pending the issue of further general orders on the subject, the establishment of new Charitable Dispensaries may be discontinued, save only in cases in which buildings for their accommodation are already in progress, or in which Government is otherwise pledged to their establishment.
