The Red Riding Hood arrived here on the 15th April/71. Mr Rowland was actively employed for 13 days in paying and despatching the Coolies - but he did not hand over his accounts to the Protector of Emigrants until the 16th May. He drew Rs 250 while acting as Emigration Agent for Natal, and the same allowance was granted to him for his services in connection with the Red Riding Hood.

The Ship "Hamworth" arrived here on the 16th June/71, and it appears from Mr. Abbot's letter that the work connected with the landing & despatching of the Coolies was completed on the 1st July. Mr Rowland has not sent in his account.
