1870, I have the honour to state that the Superintendent of Revenue Survey has so considerably modified his estimated wants of certain stationery for the year 1872-73 that it has been found practicable to make the marginal reductions in the demands contained in that indent, and, should Government see fit, I would suggest that the Home Government may be communicated with as early as practicable on the subject, with the view of stopping the supplies if not already under provision.

No. 119. ORDER THEREON, 15th July 1871, No. 1057.

Ordered that a copy of the foregoing letter be transmitted to the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for India, with a request that, if practicable, the provision of the stationery referred to may be modified as noted.
