Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Department,
17th July 1871.

No. 130. Read the following letter from the Secretary to the Government of India, Department of Agriculture, Revenue, and Commerce, to the Acting Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Simla, 30th June 1871, No. 6 :—

With reference to the Notification* published in the Gazette of India, appointing a Central Committee in India to direct the arrangements for the International Exhibition to be opened at Kensington on the 1st of May 1872, I am directed to suggest that, possibly, His Excellency the Governor in Council might feel disposed to appoint a Committee in Madras to act in concert with the Central Committee, and to encourage the District Officers and others in collecting and preparing specimens of local manufactures.

2. For facility of business, the Governor-General in Council has authorized the Central Committee to communicate direct with the Local Governments and Administrations, copies of such communications being simultaneously forwarded to the Government of India for information ; and the Honorary Secretary to the Committee has been instructed to supply the Government of Madras with any information that may be required regarding the arrangements for forwarding the collections to England and other particulars.

No. 131. ORDER THEREON, 17th July 1871, No. 1071.

Communicated to the Committee for the International Exhibition already appointed.
