*Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Department,
17th July 1871.*

Read the following papers :—

No. 136. From the Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department (Public), to the Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Simla, 27th June 1871, No. 3126.

I am directed to state that it is proposed in the Financial Department to add the following Rule as No. 4 under Chapter XIII. of the Covenanted Civil Service Leave Code, and I am to inquire whether His Excellency the Governor in Council sees any objection to it :—

“ An officer whose office is peripatetic, or who is attached to an office the head-quarters of which are not always stationed at one place, must on the expiration of leave rejoin the office wherever it may be. He is not allowed to rejoin at the station whence he took leave.

“ This rule is of general application.”

The Acting Accountant-General is requested to state to what offices in this Presidency he would consider the proposed rule applicable if passed.

FORT ST. GEORGE,
4th July 1871.

(Signed) W. HUDLESTON,
Acting Chief Secretary.

No. 137. From the Acting Accountant-General, to the Acting Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Fort St. George, 6th July 1871, No. 144.

For Audit Department.

With reference to your endorsement on the letter to your address from the Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department, No. 3126, dated the 27th ultimo, I have the honour to note in the margin the several offices in this Presidency to which the rule therein proposed would seem applicable when passed. I may add that officers of the Government Secretariat would also come under the rule if, on the expiration of their leave, their head-quarters should be on the Hills.

No. 138. ORDER THEREON, 17th July 1871, No. 1075.

The Government see no objection to the adoption of the rule proposed. The Supreme Government will be informed accordingly.
