No. 180. Proceedings of Government, Military Department.

Read the following letter from the Controller of Military Accounts, to the Officiating Secretary to Government, Military Department, dated Fort St. George, 27th June 1871, A:—

In Proceedings of Government, No. 147, dated 13th January 1871, the supply, renewal, and repair of furniture were directed to be made departmentally by the head of each office, but no instructions were issued as to the disposal of unserviceable furniture.

2. All unserviceable furniture has hitherto been made over to the Barrack-Master, but, since the order of Government above adverted to, that Officer has been relieved of the duty; and, as it is necessary that some Department should have the custody of such furniture, I would suggest that the Garrison Engineer or the Executive Commissariat Officer should receive charge and dispose of the same at one of their periodical auction sales.

3. The orders of Government are solicited for guidance.

4. I take this opportunity of inquiring also, whether it was the intention of Government to extend the operation of their order, referred to in paragraph 1 of this letter, to all stations, as regards getting their supplies when procurable from jails. The question has been asked by the Quartermaster-General, who considers the order to have referred to heads of offices only at the Presidency.

Order, 11th July 1871, No. 2220.

The Government direct that all unserviceable furniture of Military Offices at the Presidency, including the Mount, Poonamallee, and Palaveram, be transferred to the Commissariat Department, for disposal at its periodical auction sales.

2. The question of the disposal of such furniture of Civil Offices will be considered in the Public Department, with reference to Proceedings of Government in that Department, No. 703, dated 25th May 1871.

3. The Order of Government, Military Department, No. 147, dated 13th January 1871, had reference to Presidency Offices only; but the Right Honourable the Governor in Council now extends its provision, as regards jail-manufactured furniture, to all stations at which furniture can be conveniently procured from jails.

No. 181. ORDER THEREON, 20th July 1871, No. 1111.

Ordered that the course prescribed in paragraph 1 of the foregoing order, for the disposal of unserviceable furniture of Military Offices at the periodical auction sales of the Commissariat Department, be followed also in respect of all unserviceable furniture belonging to the Civil Offices at the Presidency.

2. The Commissary-General will furnish the account sales direct to the Accountant-General.
