Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Department,

26th July 1871.

No. 214. Read the following letter from the Honorary Secretary, Madras Committee for the International Exhibition of 1871, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Madras, 11th July 1871, No. 123:—

I have the honour, by order of the Madras Committee for the International Exhibition of 1871, to submit the accounts up to date, showing receipts from Government of Rupees 6,000, receipts from re-sales, Rupees 560-3-11, and an expenditure of Rupees 5,191-12-9, leaving an unexpended balance of Rupees 1,368-7-2, and I forward at the same time the vouchers for those receipts and disbursements.

2. As orders have been issued to prepare for an International Exhibition to be held in 1872, I am desired to submit, for the favourable consideration of His Excellency the Governor in Council, that the statement and vouchers, sent herewith, may be considered to close the Madras accounts for the Exhibition of 1871, and that the unexpended balance of Rupees 808-3-3 may be permitted to be carried on to the account of the Exhibition of 1872.

3. The Madras expenditure for the 1871 Exhibition can only be fully known when the money realized by sales in England shall be remitted here.

No. 215. ORDER THEREON, 26th July 1871, No. 1153.

The account received with the foregoing letter will be forwarded to the Accountant-General to be examined.

2. It appears from the account that, from the sum of Rupees 6,000 advanced by Government, the Committee for the International Exhibition of 1871 at Madras expended Rupees 5,191-12-9, which left a balance of Rupees 808-3-3 at the disposal of the Committee.

3. The Committee have added to this balance a sum of Rupees 560-3-11 realized from re-sales, the aggregate balance at their disposal is, therefore, as shown in paragraph 1 of the foregoing letter, Rupees 1,368-7-2.
